Suburban Hospital

Suburban Hospital's lactation room is along the third-floor connector to the North Building. Contact Occupational Health at x3167 to request a key to the lactation room.

Sibley Memorial Hospital

Staff members requesting access to the lactation room will be referred to the Safety and Security Manager, who, after receiving an email of support from HR, will provide the employee with the access code and room location.

Johns Hopkins Howard County Medical Center

The medical center has one room in the maternal child unit on the second floor. For access, employees should contact Deb Schinner or Morgan Risley.

Johns Hopkins Care at Home

We have a lactation room at the Care at Home Holabird location, which includes a hospital-grade breast pump available for use, refrigerator and additional supplies. The key is in the HR office for nursing mothers.
