

With Naviance™, you're not alone.

Naviance is a free program created by Johns Hopkins Medicine that helps anyone impacted by cancer, offering prevention strategies, treatment guidance and emotional support.

Whether you are seeking risk reduction advice, a patient who has received a diagnosis, a family member caring for a loved one, or a manager seeking to support an affected colleague, Naviance helps you navigate every challenge along the way.

Let's navigate cancer, together.

“My mom had a cancer scare late last year, and I gave her the info for Naviance. She said the woman she spoke with was wonderful...I was really glad to have been able to give her that contact because she was a wreck while she was waiting for feedback from various doctors.”

How does Naviance help?

Naviance helps individuals stay healthy and reduce their cancer risk. But if the time comes when you or a loved one are impacted by a diagnosis, Naviance provides a compassionate navigator to guide you at every step. It can make all the difference in how you experience your journey.

Through Naviance, your employer offers you dedicated access to the right care and resources.

Naviance helps you:
